NANO-TEC poll on European capabilities regarding Technology-Design of beyond CMOS technologies

Thu, 2012/05/31 - 10:24 — Ralf Popp, edacentrum GmbH, DE

The NANO-TEC project is working on a description of the current status of the European capabilities regarding Technology-Design of the technologies benchmarked during the NANO-TEC workshop 2. The project urgently needs your experience and opinion on that to be filled in in the questionnaire to be found at www.fp7-nanotec.eu/workshop3/poll ^[1]. So please contribute!

NANO-TEC has received funding from the European Community's Seventh Framework Programme (FP7/2007-2013) under grant agreement n° 257964
